THE WEEK IN THE NEWS OF THE WORLD

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE BROADCAST

TODAY, THIS NATION makes a mental pilgrimage to Springfield, Illinois, there to pay memorial tribute at the tomb of Abraham Lincoln.

The rough, honest frontiersman lawyer who became a wartime President of the United States, has become a symbol of the Typical American. He is the Poor Man's President, the Great Emancipator, the Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, and a martyr because he opposed disunion and the international bankers.

Across the world, another tomb—that of Lenin in the Red Square of Moscow—is also a center of pilgrimage and the symbol of internationalism.

Disciples of Lenin and followers of Lincoln are today in conflict in this country. And no American can be a "neutral."

Which hero, Lenin or Lincoln? On which side are YOU—Americanism or Communism?
Our MAN OF THE WEEK is a merchandiser of sensation, of propaganda disguised as entertainment, and of outright subversion of morality.

The artist has sought to catch the evil spirit of his menace. Readers of SOCIAL JUSTICE were introduced last week to the “Mystical Body of Satan”—on the racks of any modern newsstand one may survey his work.

Confident that America is a “Christian” country, we have permitted to thrive and prosper off our indifference, a progressively flagrant affronting of common decency, to say nothing of Christian morals.

Encouraged by our tolerance, the Smut Vendors have grown bolder: from off-color jokes illustrated by daring cartoons, the magazines have retrograded rapidly into deliberate filth. Feminine nudity and bad taste in “candid camera reporting” is a commonplace for the nation’s children.

The remedy is in YOUR hands. Tell your newsstand dealer what magazines offend and why. Tell the advertisers who support these magazines why you think their editorial contents ought not to be supported.

A Legion of Decency some years ago cleaned up Hollywood’s rotten films; let’s clean up the newsstands!
